HIALEAH – KEEPS GETTING GREENER!

Hialeah, Florida – The City of Hialeah's Green Project, an initiative committed to preserving Hialeah's natural beauty, invites its friends from the Media to attend a tree planting ceremony at Hialeah Middle School's Sports Complex. The initiative which began with Miami Dade College, now stems even further, planting 75 new Dahoon Holly Trees, generously donated by Mick Gnaegy from Mix'd Greens Wholesale Nursery in conjunction with Xavier Cortada's Native Flags Project, to further beautify and expand Hialeah's natural canopy areas.

This event was made possible through the restoration project efforts spearheaded by Mayor Julio Robaina, the City Council and the City of Hialeah. Sponsored by All American Recycling Center, the tree planting ceremony is yet another milestone in our ongoing effort to make Hialeah Green.

When – Thursday, October 2, 2008, at 2:00 p.m.

Where – Hialeah Middle School Sports Complex 6027 East 7 Avenue
